UM INVITES HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS TO OPEN HOUSE

MISSOULA--

High school juniors and seniors across Montana who are planning for a college education in their future are invited to give The University of Montana-Missoula a good look on Saturday, Oct. 18.

UM Days, an annual open house at the University, gives prospective students the opportunity to spend a day on campus, learning about aspects that concern entering students. UM students, staff and faculty are on hand to inform high school students about academic programs, career choices, extracurricular activities, financial information and student life. Program activities include a student-led presentation, a student panel, tours of campus and an academic fair.

The campus program is free and will be from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. After the program, each participant will receive a complimentary pass to the Grizzlies' Big Sky Conference matchup with the Eastern Washington University Eagles. Kickoff is set for 1:05 p.m. at Washington-Grizzly Stadium. UM also encourages parents to attend UM Days' activities, and they can see the football game at a reduced rate of $7 per game ticket.

Participants are encouraged to register for UM Days before Thursday, Oct. 16. Registration forms are available at guidance offices in Montana high schools or through UM's Admissions and New Student Services office. Local students call 243-6266. Out-of-town students call collect (800) 462-8636. After registration, students will receive more information about the event.
